„Beep ... beepeeepeeeeeeeeeep!"

Black smoke rose from the shrilly and non-stop squealing metal detector.

The fire alarm of the Airport hit in, and the water sprinklers exploded, too.

Kirk helplessly looked around, confused, without the slightest idea what was going on.

His black eyeliner wasn't water resistant and dramatically ran down his cheeks.

The overheated metal detector gave a last "beeeep" then died.

"That's it", James hissed. "I have enough of that shit! The tenth ruined detector in a row. Fire alarms! Metallica can't afford the costs any longer".

He shot Lars a glance.

"His fucking piercings have to go!"
